Privacy Policy

Langford Behavioral Health Services respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you provide through this website.

Information you voluntarily submit through our website, such as your name, phone number, email address, or appointment request information, will be used only for the purpose for which it was provided and for appropriate business or patient-care functions.

Our website may also collect limited technical information, such as browser type, device information, pages visited, and website usage data through cookies or analytics tools. This information is used to maintain and improve the website and does not, by itself, identify you as a patient.

Please avoid submitting sensitive medical or mental health information through general website contact forms unless the form is specifically identified as a secure method for communicating protected health information.

Langford Behavioral Health Services does not sell your personal information.

Information related to your healthcare and treatment is handled in accordance with applicable privacy laws and our Notice of Privacy Practices.

If you have questions regarding this Privacy Policy or the handling of your information, please contact Langford Behavioral Health Services.
